March, 1, 1866. We certify that we have carefully examined the foregoing account of the Selectmen with the town of Rochester, for the year ending a t this date, and we have found it thoroughly vouched and correctly cast, and find now due the town from the Selectmen the sum of two thousand two hundred ninety-six dollars and fi fty-four cents ($2,296 54.)

JAS. H. EDGERLY, JOSEPH H. WORCESTER, Auditors.

Of the amount now due in George W. Page's list there has been collected by him as shown by his list, the sum of $1,984 79, which has not been paid over to the Selectmen, leaving a balance in his list to collect, of $415 76. Suit has been commenced again at Page and his sureties, and is now pending in Court.
